

Annette Gautier Warren

Annette Gautier Warren Annette Gautier Warren passed away peacefully in her home on Monday, May 10, 2010 in Austin, Texas. Annette was born in Baltimore, Maryland on January 14, 1942 to Edward F. and Frances Wilson Warren, both of whom preceded her in death. She attended Thomas Jefferson High School in Dallas, Texas and pursued her wings with American Airlines as a flight attendant shortly after graduation. After leaving the airline, Annette worked as an administrative assistant at MW Kellogg and then later at Texas Youth Commission, Live Oak Elementary School and Broadwing Communications. Annette was a loving mother and friend. She was passionate about animals of all kinds, volunteering at area pet shelters and with therapy miniature horses throughout the years. She was preceded in death by her younger brother, Dudley Wilson Warren of Seattle, WA and is survived by her son, Shawn Robert Grona, Austin TX; elder brother, Edward Warren and wife Kathy, Lugoff, SC; sister-in-law, Barbara Warren, Seattle WA; nephew, Dr. Scott Warren and wife Susan, Chapel Hill, NC; nephew, Chris Warren and wife Millie, Knoxville, TN; her loving cat, Ashlee; and last, but not least, her aunt and namesake, Annette Gautier Sirmon (90), Alexandria, VA. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the, 11701 Stonehollow Drive, Austin, TX 78758 or Hospice Austin, 4107 Spicewood Springs Rd Suite 100, Austin, TX 78759.

Published in Austin American-Statesman on May 14, 2010